McFarland DAILY REPORT
4/1/98 Loads 394 - 410
Location: 29° 27' N 89° 01' W
weather conditions: Cloudy, wind 10-15 Kts, SEAS 3-4
Water Temp: 70°F
Condition of screens: Good
Incident of Endangered species: YES

Comments

- OBSERVATION FOR SEA TURTLES Began at 00:00. A TURTLE was Found in The Starboard discharge Box, dispite extensive damage it was Positively identified as a Loggerhead (Caretta Caretta). SEE incident report.

- MATERIAL DREDGED IS SILT + MUD

- Biological SPECIMENS SEEN include SEA Stars, lightening whelks, Fish, Moon SNAIL, Spider CRAB, and Blue CRABS

- Other DEBRIS included TRASH, Rocks + wood

OBSERVERS: ANDREW Jackson, Stacie Knight